

E-Training Concept for Hydro Building Systems

According to a recent report by Global Industry Analysts Inc., e-training is on the rise. Therefore international companies strive to centralize their e-training efforts on internet platforms for customers and employees. For the company Hydro Building Systems we developed a customized concept to reach their customers in more than 7 countries and assess and train their sales people all over the world.