

Apache Lenya User Meeting July 2010, Bordeaux, France

The community of the Apache Lenya project would like to invite you to the next user and developer meeting in Bordeaux, France. The meeting allows users from various organizations to exchange their experiences and best practises, and to make suggestions for improvement to the developers. The focused atmosphere enables the community members to discuss important matters affecting the future of the project as well as particular implementation details.

The meeting will take place from July 7 to 11 during the RMLL (Rencontre Mondiale du Logiciel Libre). You will find more information at <http://wiki.apache.org/lenya/MeetingBordeaux2010> (<http://wiki.apache.org/lenya/MeetingBordeaux2010>).
