

Partners

Our partners are professional companies along the digital value chain proud to be excellent in their particular field. Through the combined experience of our partners we are able to offer a wide range of services to meet your specific demands.

Jeremias Märki

Jeremias Märki is a specialist for document production and publishing solutions based on open standards and open source software. He is a member of the Apache Software Foundation (<http://www.apache.org>) and committer and PMC member of the Apache XML Graphics (<http://xmlgraphics.apache.org>) project. For further information, please visit his website (<http://www.jeremias-maerki.ch>).

Constant Corporate Design: CI-Book by d-serv

d-serv (<http://www.dserv-se.de/index.php?id=549&L=1>) is a well-established IT service provider situated in Tübingen, Germany. The interdisciplinary team uses its individual skills and strengths to successfully realize your projects.

CI-Book (<http://www.ci-book.de/index.php?id=433&L=1>) is an internet based platform for your B2B- or B2C-communication and personal, corporate identity (CI) and corporate design (CD) conform configuration of marketing materials (business papers, adverts, flyers, postcards, brochures, catalogs and a lot more). Please take a look at the CI-Book online demo (<http://www.ci-book.de/index.php?id=480&L=1>).

(<http://www.ci-book.de/index.php?id=433&L=1>)

IT Security by HIT Information-Control

Security is a fundamental quality aspect of web applications. The company HIT Information-Control (<http://www.information-control.de>) develops and implements customized security policies and ensures that they are kept up to date. If you are interested in further information about our partner, please visit the corporate website (<http://www.information-control.de>).

